To identify the tone, look at the author's word choice, sentence structure, and stylistic devices. Pay attention to adjectives, metaphors, and the overall language used. Analyzing specific phrases and how they contribute to the attitude of the narrator or speaker helps pinpoint the tone.

Question 2: How does mood differ from tone, and why is it important to distinguish between them?

Answer:

While tone reflects the author's attitude, mood pertains to the emotional effect on the reader. It's important to distinguish between them because they influence different aspects of a literary work. Answer:

Suppose an author describes a dark, stormy night using words like "howling wind," "ominous clouds," and "shadows lurking." The details trigger emotional responses in the reader, immersing them in the atmosphere.
