File your divorce papers at the circuit court clerk's office in the county where you or your spouse reside. Confirm whether online filing is available in your county.

Serving the Papers

Serve the divorce papers within the timeframe specified by the court, typically within 120 days of filing. Proper service ensures the case proceeds without issues.

Responding to Divorce Papers

The respondent has 20 days from service to file a response. Failure to respond can lead to a default judgment in favor of the petitioner.

Negotiation and Settlement

Parties may negotiate terms, possibly with the help of attorneys or mediators, to reach an agreement on issues like custody, support, and property division.

If disputes remain unresolved, the court will schedule hearings to make determinations on contested issues.

Final Judgment

After all issues are settled or decided, the court issues a Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage, which legally ends the marriage and enforces the agreed or court-ordered terms.
