The term "ballet" itself derives from the French word ballet, meaning a little dance. Early performances combined dance, music, and elaborate costumes, often serving as a means of storytelling and social display.

The Birth of Ballet in France

In the 17th century, ballet truly began to take shape under the patronage of the French monarchy. Transition to Professionalism

During the 18th century, ballet moved from court entertainment to public theaters. This period saw the emergence of professional dancers and choreographers who began to develop more sophisticated narratives and technical standards. The development of ballet d'action, which emphasized expressive movement and storytelling without words, marked a significant evolution.

The Evolution of Ballet: 19th and 20th Century

Key Features of Romantic Ballet:

- Emphasis on emotion and storytelling
- Use of supernatural and mythical themes
- Development of pointe work and tutus
- The rise of the ballerina as the central figure

The Classical Ballet Era

By mid-19th century, formalized techniques and choreographies laid the foundation for what is now known as classical ballet. The most renowned of these is The Sleeping Beauty (1890), Swan Lake (1877), and The Nutcracker (1892), all composed by Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky for the Imperial Ballet of Russia.
