- The concept of ren as essential to human nature
- The importance of righteous rulers and moral leadership
- The critique of authoritarian rule and advocating for benevolent governance
- The idea that people are inherently good, but need proper nurturing

The Great Learning (Daxue)

This text provides guidance on personal cultivation and governance, emphasizing the unity between individual morality and societal harmony. Key elements include:

- The process of self-cultivation leading to social harmony
- The importance of moral virtue in leadership
- The concept of rectification of names (clarity in language and roles)
- The progression from personal virtue to national and world peace

The Doctrine of the Mean (Zhongyong)

This book explores the idea of moderation, balance, and harmony in thought and action. Its core ideas include:

- Achieving zhong (centrality) and yun (harmony)
- The importance of maintaining equilibrium in life
- Cultivating a calm and reflective mind
- The pursuit of moral perfection through moderation
